

MADONIE PARK

Cefalù Tourist Presidium

The Cefalù Tourist Presidium of the Madonie Park body, a European Geopark since 2001, is in Corso Ruggero, a short way from the main piazza, where you can admire the splendid cathedral erected in 1131 at the behest of the first king of the Kingdom of Sicily, Roger II. Cefalù, a town with a thousand resources, offers those coming from far off an opportunity to roam among sea, mountains and valleys, and also to take an artistic-cultural itinerary; and it is stupendous to be able to rediscover medieval Cefalù along the narrow streets in the historic area today still paved in stone, exactly as in the past, and the splendid portals, the steep streets, the underpasses, etc.

The Cefalù Tourist Presidium was created for the purpose of furnishing a valid and very advantageous service to the tourist coming to the town for the first time.

The Information Office provides a constant and thorough service of assistance and tourist reception, distributes information brochures and leaflets, and publicizes events in the territory both at a local and a provincial level. It searches for information in the Internet, furnishes timetables and details on the transport services, and so forth. It gives information relating to accommodation, catering, services in the town, historical and artistic itineraries, nature itineraries, exhibitions, events and other things. The information centre, managed by a team of 11 assistants, being computerised is also able to provide rapid information in English and French by email.

The information point is subdivided into:

- gadget display area;
- park publications display area;
- Geopark display area, also computerised;
- information counter and book and gadget sale point;
- showcase of the various events taking place.

The office is open every day, from Monday to Sunday, 8.45 to 1.15 and 2.45 to 7.15. It is closed on the following days: 25 December, 15 August, 1 November, 1 January, Easter Monday.
