

Title : Welcome to the 3rd Asia-Pacific Geoparks Network Jeju Symposium!

Content :

The 3rd Asia-Pacific Geoparks Network Jeju Symposium “For the Innovation of the APGN”, which is going to be held from September 7 to 13, 2013 at Jeju KAL Hotel, Jeju, Korea.

Jeju's distinctive worldwide beauty has been recognized with UNESCO Bio Sphere Reserve (2002), UNESCO Natural Heritage Site (2007) and Global Geoparks Network (2010), and Jeju has been a test bed for various UNESCO programs. The 3rd Asia-Pacific Geoparks Network Jeju Symposium is an excellent venue for sustainable developments, conserving and utilizing environments effectively with newer paradigm of coexistence among human and environment.

The 3rd Asia-Pacific Geoparks Network Jeju Symposium will comprise thematic oral sessions with guest speakers, selected oral presentations and poster sessions related to the main aims, as well as, symposium fieldtrips at the Jeju Island Geoparks. Participants may also participate in Geopark Fair and various official/social events.

This Jeju Symposium clearly is a venue for participants, revaluing our environment, interchanging with other geoparks and expanding international cooperation to a much greater level.

Also it will benefit those current member scholars and managing staff of Global Geoparks as well as future prospective members of local scholars and managing staff.

Jeju Symposium proudly represents unique Jeju thematic activities while maintaining originality of general meeting and its continuity. Please join us at the 3rd Asia-Pacific Geoparks Network Jeju Symposium, the turning point for geotourism and expansion of awareness of geoparks, enjoy yourself with the beauty of Jeju and share your idea for the direction of future development of Geoparks Program.
