| - total number of visitors/participants                       | 300 people |

2. Highlight most successful activities of your Geoparks Week 2013:

All conferences were open to all audiences. The presentations and activities were organized taking into account:

- 1) People interested in geotourism, tourism, nature, preservation of the environment, management of tourism and environment.
- 2) Teachers, scientists, geologist, schools, etc...
- 3) Association businesspeople interested in the land and the vine and other activities for people.

Conclusion: It's the first time we organize a week of Geoparks. The number of attendees and fields trips was correct. We print 1.500 copies of brochures, but the diffusion of the activities was on line and came to many people. For these, we are satisfied. We have collaborated with expert people, private companies and associations.

The next year, the week will try to organize some activities considering for schools because scientific conferences have been very successful and we want to support the young scientist.
