

Eisenwurzen Nature- and Geopark: Programme EGN Week

1. Introduction into the flora of the Nature- and Geopark Eisenwurzen; 17 May, seminar with Karoline Kreimer-Hartmann

2. International annual Meeting of the branch “Geotopes“ of the German Society of Geosciences (SDGG) in St. Gallen, Eisenwurzen, 21 – 25 May (Scientific coordination: Heinz Kollmann)

Programme

22 May. Geological walking-tour through the Weissenbach Gorge (guide: Heinz Kollmann)

23 May, whole day. Scientific presentations at hotel Kassegg, visit of the monastery of Admont, its world-famous library and its collections of natural history and art.

24 May, whole day: Scientific Field trip to the Palaeozoic of the Alpine Grauwacken Zone and Meozoic and Pleistocene localities of the Gesäuse National Park and the Eisenwurzen Nature- and Geopark (guides: Hans Peter Schönlaub, Heinz Kollmann)

A special volume for this meeting is in print

3. Day of Biodiversity, 23 May. Theme of this year: The biodiversity of family-owned agricultural enterprises. All schools of the Eisenwurzen Park. Coordination: Irmi Auer

4. Local aquatic fauna and flora – a comparison between flowing and standing water. 26 May 2014; students of the 2nd grade of secondary school of Weißenbach. Coordination: Irmi Auer

5. Geological hiking tour through the Spitzenbach Gorge. 27 May 2014; students of the third grade of the secondary school of Weissenbach. Guide: Heinz Kollmann

6. Edible landscape: floral treasures around us. 29 – 30 May and 31 May – 1 June. Palfau, presented by Cornelia Miedler

7. Culture in the GeoWorkshop. Local writers present their work in the geology workshop of Gams. 4 July, GeoWorkshop, Gams

8. Kraus Cave annual festivity. 20 July, Kraus Cave, Gams. Guided tours, social meeting

9. 600 years ago: The start of jet mining at Gams. Seminar and field trip. Date to be set